This Air Force Policy Directive (AFPD) implements Department of Defense (DoD) Directive (DoDD) 1348.19, Award of Trophies and Similar Devices in Recognition of Accomplishments and DoD Instruction (DoDI) 1348.33, Military Awards Program. This directive establishes the framework for the Air Force Awards, Decorations, and Special Recognition Program and applies to units and personnel of the Regular Air Force, Air National Guard, and Air Force Reserve and Air Force civilian employees specified by Air Force instructions. In collaboration with the Chief of Air Force Reserve (AF/RE) and the Director of the Air National Guard (NGB/CF), the Deputy Chief of Staff for Manpower, Personnel and Services (AF/A1) develops personnel policy for Air Force Awards, Decorations, and Special Recognition programs. This AFPD may not be supplemented. Refer recommended changes and questions about this publication to the Office of Primary Responsibility (OPR) using Air Force (AF) Form 847, Recommendation for Change of Publication; route AF Form 847's from the field through the appropriate functional chain of command. Ensure that all records created as a result of processes prescribed in this publication are maintained in accordance with Air Force Manual (AFMAN) 33-363, Management of Records, and disposed of in accordance with the Air Force Records Disposition Schedule located in the Air Force Records Information Management System.

SUMMARY OF CHANGES

This directive has been significantly revised and should be reviewed in its entirety. This revision provides the board requirements (paragraph 3.4.) and deletes functional areas authority to create and administer their own awards programs.

1. Overview. Air Force personnel make many personal and professional sacrifices to ensure the Air Force accomplishes its missions and is a respected part of our society. Acts of valor, heroism, exceptional service, and outstanding achievement deserve special recognition, and this policy establishes guidance for recognizing individuals and groups.

2. Policy. The Air Force will have a recognition program to foster morale, incentive, and esprit de corps.

2.1. The Air Force will have an Awards and Decorations Program. Personnel or units who receive awards and decorations under this program must clearly demonstrate sustained and superior performance. This program will include campaign, expeditionary, and service medals.

2.2. The Air Force will have a Special Recognition Program. It will recognize acts of bravery, outstanding achievements, or periods of meritorious service. This program will also encompass awards from private organizations that seek Air Force participation.

2.2.1. In an effort to streamline the workload and to standardize the nomination process, nomination packages for Air Force level awards are limited to two pages and will be submitted on an Air Force Form 1206, Nomination for Award. Exceptions to this requirement must be approved by the Deputy Chief of Staff for Manpower, Personnel, and Services (AF/A1).

2.2.2. To reduce the workload placed on units, functional areas which require the use of base visits to help determine award winners are limited to one visit per base per award.

2.3. Major Commands (MAJCOM) may create and administer their own awards programs.

2.4. MAJCOMs may participate in awards programs sponsored by national organizations. When they do participate in such programs, they will process their own submissions.

2.5. Functional areas which require the use of base visits to help determine award winners are limited to one visit per base per award.

3. Responsibilities. This policy directive establishes the following responsibilities and authorities:

3.1. The Assistant Secretary of the Air Force for Manpower and Reserve Affairs (SAF/MR) serves as an agent of the Secretary and provides guidance, direction, and oversight for all matters pertaining to the formulation, review, and execution of plans, policies, programs, and budgets addressing the Air Force Awards and Decorations Program. SAF/MR also interfaces with the Office of the Secretary of Defense concerning development of DoD policy and legislative initiatives.

3.2. Deputy Chief of Staff for Manpower, Personnel, and Services (AF/A1) develops, coordinates, and executes personnel policy and essential procedural guidance for the management of the various award programs.

3.3. With AF/A1 guidance and approval, the Air Force Personnel Center (AFPC) will develop specific requirements for each Air Force award and decoration. At a minimum, AFPC will specify the establishing authority, nomination or selection criteria, eligibility criteria, and the awarding authority for each award and decoration.

3.3.1. A general officer or civilian equivalent will chair all military and civilian nomination or selection boards for USAF/DoD/National award programs.

3.4. Commanders and Civilian Directors administer and ensure compliance with the various Air Force recognition programs.
